Organic Grain Buyer/Seller Mixer

Feb 5, 2025 | 5-7PM

Riggs Beer Company, Champaign, Illinois

Join us for an evening of organic grain supply chain networking, food, and refreshments! This is an opportunity for organic grain buyers and Midwest-based farmers to connect and share insights with one another. Whether you are an established buyer, a farmer exploring organic practices, or a certified organic farmer, this event is designed for you. Meet fellow organic grain supply chain actors, discover new partnerships, and engage in discussions about the future of organic agriculture in the Midwest. Enjoy complimentary food from Maize Mexican Grill, a beloved local eatery dedicated to supporting our local farming community. Guests will enjoy mouthwatering dishes crafted using locally grown organic corn. This event is free (attendees must register) and open to all who are interested in the organic grain marketplace.
